Kumho
Petrochemical
Co., Ltd. (KKPC) has grown and prospered with its customers since 1970 by providing innovative petrochemical solutions and customer-focused service. Today as a trusted partner and one of the world's largest and most competitive producers of synthetic rubbers with world-class technology and products in the fields of synthetic resins, phenol derivatives, and specialty chemicals, we are now expanding into the fields of energy, electronic materials, building materials, and advanced materials to drive future growth.
By 2020, we aim to generate consolidated sales of KRW 20 trillion annually with 20 products that rank in the global top-5 in their categories as we pursue our vision of becoming a global leading chemical group.
